

Brittnee N. Smith, M.B.A.

Brittnee Smith is a Graphic Designer & Brand Strategist who helps emerging and evolving businesses to create, cultivate and monetize their brand with excellent design and innovative strategy. Before starting Brittnee Smith Creative Company, Brittnee worked several of years as a freelance graphic designer. After a few successful years helping churches and entrepreneurs develop and express their brand identities, Brittnee now consults her business clients on how to organize their brand for maximum effectiveness, tell compelling brand stories, and create an engaging visual experience for their beloved customers.

When she is not designing or consulting her business clients, Brittnee is an author, a speaker, a mentor, a minister, a wife and mother. Her greatest privilege is building a business that simultaneously builds a legacy for her family. She enjoys helping others see their own brilliance and inspiring them to share it with the world through her personal brand over at brittneesmith.com. She boldly motivates her followers ditch fear, and take flight in their lives and in their businesses.
