

Summer Willow Fitch

Summer Willow Fitch is a "Fire-Starter" with over 21 years of finance and operations management experience in Fortune 500 and non-profit roles.

Summer holds a B.A. in Communication Studies and Organizational Marketing from West Chester University and an MBA with an Entrepreneurship focus from Eastern University. Summer developed a passion for entrepreneurship at an early age. When she was 9 years old, she started her first venture - a maid service and by age 25 she created a traveling bartending service affectionately called, In Good Spirits. Summer's mixology career afforded her 13 years of armchair therapy experience and in 2015 she was influenced to pen her first published book titled, Let Me Tell You Like I Told Myself: Love's Truth Never Changes.

Summer now holds multiple certifications in diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) and is skilled in facilitating learning experiences through curriculum and training design. In 2020, at the height of the COVID-19 pandemic, Summer joined forces with Tamika Otis, CEO/Principal of KABOD Consulting Group, LLC. as Sr. Partner/Principal.

With a zeal for serving underrepresented populations, Summer has pledged her time and resources as Co-Founder and Board Chair of the Black Women Give Foundation whose mission is to engage African American women and girls in philanthropy by joining a growing trend in women's collective giving. Summer Willow is also a dedicated member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.

Visit Summer's websites:

kabodconsults.com

bwgive.org