

Cassandra Burnett, Esq.

Mrs. Burnett achieved a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology with a minor in Criminal Justice in 2002, cum laude. She continued her education and achieved my Juris Doctor in 2005 from then Thomas Cooley Law School in Lansing, Michigan.

Mrs. Burnett has practiced law as a Litigation Attorney for the last 18 years. Since November 2008, she has been a Deputy Attorney General for the State of New Jersey practicing Child Welfare Law. She is currently an Assistant Section Chief where she supervises a staff of 7 attorneys.

From September 2013-2021, Mrs. Burnett has taught as an Adjunct Professor at Camden County College in the Paralegal Studies department. In November 2020, she started her business, Lizzie's Love Cakes, that is an online bundt cake bakery in honor of her mother, Lizzie. www.lizzieslovecakes.com.

From 2016-2022, Mrs. Burnett was a WBYR (walk before you run) Run Coordinator for Black Girls Run. She has also been a Girl Scout mother for five years. In 2021, Mrs. Burnett founded the Hey Girl! Women's Conference. A safe space for women to reveal and share their authentic selves. Mrs. Burnett is a member of Living Waters Christian Center in Philadelphia, Pa. where she serves as the Youth Ministry Leader. She also is a speaker at conferences and workshops.

Mrs. Burnett is married to her supportive husband for almost 17 years and has two beautiful girls.