

Vanessa M. Gaskin, M.Ed.

Vanessa M. Gaskin, affectionately called Lady V., is an educator, writer, church leader, and a woman of God. She currently serves as Youth Chairlady of the Koinonia Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction of the Church of God in Christ, under Bishop Ernest C. Morris Sr.

She is married to Pastor Jeffery Gaskin, and has co-labored in the ministry of Living Waters Christian Center from its infancy in 2005 until now. Together, they parent three sons: Jeff Jr., Jordan, and Justus. At Living Waters, Lady V leads worship, proclaims the Word of God, shepherds the Women's Ministry, and promotes the primacy of prayer. The prayer ministry is where the Lord has anchored Lady V to be a vigilant soldier. She earned her Bachelor's and Master's degrees in education from Temple University, and is currently in her 31st year as a school teacher in the Norristown Area School District.

She is also the published author of "Morning Fire", Volume I, a 70 day prayer devotional which was birthed out of six plus years of 40 day prayer and encouragement texts which she wrote for Living Waters' men and women. Lady V is passionate about being a positive force in the lives that she encounters everywhere, and she does it with a consistent, authentic, and bright smile.

Visit Lady V's website: vanessamgaskin.com