

Robin Wiley, DSW

Dr. Robin C. Wiley is a licensed clinical social worker who received her BA in Social Work from Virginia State University, and an MSW and DSW from Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey. She possesses 30 years of experience in the field of social work, mainly as a mental health therapist.

Her practice focus includes, but is not limited to, working with individuals with Anxiety, Depression, ADHD, and acute stress. A specialty area of her practice involves providing supportive interventions to older adults experiencing life stressors. Dr. Wiley is clinically licensed in NJ, PA and DE. She is also a Certified Clinical Supervisor. Dr. Wiley has a special interest in empowering others through improving their ability to cope adequately with the challenges faced in daily life. She acknowledges and appreciates the cultural, experiential, and environmental factors that play a major part in one's life. Embracing such factors helps to guide her practice.

Dr. Wiley is the founder and owner of Infinity Empowerment Services, LLC that provides outpatient and in home therapy for youth, adults, and families in the Southern New Jersey area. You can learn more about Dr. Wiley and her agency on her website drrobinwiley.com.